Weekly Update #7

Main focus of this week was in finishing and checking project presentation. Topics of presentation were covered in last week's weekly update. Main issue that needs to be addressed for KnowMixer prototype is overall application flow. Home page and category page are currently under construction and will be finished in the following week. Next week will consist of solely application work.